didnt like it. For 2$ id say its worth it graphic arent bad almost on par with the first slenderman and for that price the game pays itself off with 1 juymp scare. Edit: Ok I have played a little more of this game and after a few beers standing in the living room doing nothing im thoroughly convinced this is designed for 1 good jump scare and thats it. This game has the same satisfaction factor as 5NFreds which isnt much. Let me clerify all you have to do is complete a few nights of checking specific areas then flicking a light certain specified areas. All in all id still recommend this game its got several jump scare scenes that are OK but this games is worth the $2 price tag. I garantee youll get several hours out of this game and at this price its worth it.
